GROTON
BIBLE
CHAPEL

Children Are Wet Cement

by Ann Ortlund

WHAT SHOULD A TWO TO FIVE YEAR OLD BE LEARNING?

He should learn to know what he likes and what he doesn't; how to build with blocks; to paste; to climb; to swing; to run; to hop; to skip...

He should learn to imagine; to pretend he's a policeman, a bus driver... He should begin to learn how to deal with fear and love and jealousy and hatred and wonder...

He should learn how to take simple things apart; how to pour; how to pile; how to push...

When a child moves into group play, when he shares, when he recognizes another's pain or frustrations, when he acts out of his own conflicts, anxieties, fears and confusions... he is doing the plain hard uncompromising work of growing up...

HE IS ENCOUNTERING LIFE

Toll Gate Christian Preschool is a ministry of Groton Bible Chapel.

The preschool is licensed under the State of Connecticut and is in full compliance with all state and local regulations as established by the Connecticut Department of Health and the Office of Early Childhood (OEC).

Curriculum

The OEC's Early Learning and Development Standards serve as a basis for our age-appropriate learning experiences. Our program serves children by:

- Supporting quality, play based learning experiences
- Providing opportunities to facilitate social and emotional growth
- Encouraging thinking and reasoning skills
- Promoting language and literacy development
- Advocating and demonstrating sound health, safety and nutritional habits
- Providing opportunities for physical development

Play Spaces

Play spaces include a large motor skills room, gym, outdoor playscape, and three spacious classrooms with:

- Open carpeted areas
- Building and dramatic play centers
- Library, listening and literacy areas
- Sensory and art areas with water and sand tables and a variety of art media for creative expression
- Discovery, math and science centers

MISSION: To enhance the spiritual, social and emotional, intellectual, and physical growth and development of young children and to foster the realization of their unique, valuable, full potential in Jesus Christ.
